IRVINGTON LACONICS

Plans In Progress For New Baptist Church. May Have Another Fair.

The members of the Baptist church in Irvington took a public subscription last Sunday morning Feb. 9, at the eleven o'clock service held in Cumberland Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. Eugene Reid assisted by Dr. Bryant of Louisville.

At the close of the sermon by Dr. Bryant, volunteer subscriptions were taken for the new edifice which is to be built on the same lot where the first church stood which was destroyed by fire in 1916.

The subscriptions were started off by $300 donation from E. S. McAfee, G. T. Marshall, J. M. Herndon, G. O. Bailey and the Woman's Missionary Society. With these and other donations over $3,000 was solicited the first day.

Do You Want A Fair?

B. W. Carter, Secretary of the Corn, Clover and Stock Club of Irvington writes an open letter to the citizens of that city seeking to know their pleasure as to whether the Club will hold its annual Fair in the summer of 1919.

Owing to war last year the Fair was not held, and this year, Mr. Carter is anxious that every man in the Irvington community be present at a meeting which he will announce later, and cast their vote of "yes" or "no" for a Fair in 1919.

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 100 years GOLD MEDAL Hairton Oil has been relieving the weakness and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. ## PROTECTION OF OUR FORESTS

Secretary of Agriculture Urges More Rapid Improvement Work and More Guards.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Provisions for pushing more rapidly the improvement work in the forests of the United States, for a greater number of forest guards and for earlier organization each fire season of the protective system are advocated by the secretary of agriculture in his annual report.

Protection of the forests during the season of 1918 proved an exceptionally difficult task, says the secretary. An unusual strain was imposed on an organization somewhat depleted in numbers and much weakened by the loss of many of its most experienced men. Added to this was the difficulty of securing good men for temporary appointment as guards during the fire season, and parties of men for fighting large fires. An unusually early and severe dry season caused the outbreak of serious fires before the summer protective organization was fully ready.

Some embarrassment in meeting the situation, the report comments, was caused by the failure of the annual appropriation act to pass congress until after the fire season was virtually over. Relief was furnished by the president, who placed $1,000,000 at the secretary's disposal as a loan from the president's emergency fund. It may be necessary, the secretary says, to seek from congress again a deficiency appropriation of $750,000.

APPRECIATED LETTERS

BEEN AWAY FORM

KY. 19 YEARS.

Mr. J. D. Babbage, Cloverport, Ky. Dear John: Your card received as to my renewal but I was aware my time would be up soon and would have renewed in time. We want the news from our old Kentucky, home county. We miss the items from several points and would be glad if your gleaners would all be prompt in sending in their reports.

We have now been here 19 years and have never regretted the change. We made as we have done well here financially. Last year was the worst year we have had here, but we had early fall rains and there was a large acreage of wheat sown, and it is fine. We are now in the cotton co. oil fields but no wells nearer to us than 6 miles yet. It has been a great benefit to renters as the cotton crop was almost a complete failure. The oil business has engaged a lot of the farmers to work for them and they pay from $4.00 to $15.00 per day, for work. Guess you have been getting the reports through the papers concerning the fields here.

The "flu" sure took a great many of our people but I don't know of a case here now.

I enclose check for The Breckenridge News. Yours respectfully, Henry Harned, Temple, Okla.

R. J. BASHAM RENEWS.

Dear Editor: I am sending you a P. O. money order for $1.50 to extend my subscription for one year to The Breckenridge News. R. J. Basham, Humboldt, Ill. R. R. No. 2.

P. S. And I am also sending you a letter from a Breckenridge county soldier boy, Lewis McCoy so you can print it if you have space enough.

FORM J. T. BRYANT.

Mr. J. D. Babbage, Dear Sir: Find enclosed check for $1.50 for my renewal to your paper, The Breckenridge News. Yours respectfully, Jno. T. Bryant, McQuady, Ky.

PROPHET TELLS OF WAR'S END MONK FIXED 3 YEARS AND 5 MONTHS

Document Discovered In Old Monastery In Mecklenburg Written In 1701.

The article following was furnished The Breckenridge News for publication by Mr. J. L. Rhodes of McDaniels, and he came in possession of it through his son, Paul Rhodes, who brought it to this country four years ago, after it had been published in a Canadian newspaper. The article is the prophecy of a German Monk concerning the past war's end, and the opening paragraph explains its origin. It is claimed the prophecy was written in 1701.

Copenhagen.—In the razing of the old monastery of the Holy Ghost in Wismar, Mecklenburg, an old Bible was found which contained a remarkable prophecy regarding the present world war. It was written in 1701 by one of the monks on parchment that is now yellow and seared with age. It is now on exhibition in a glass case in the city hall of Wismar. So much publicity has been given to the prophecy in the papers of Germany that thousands have flocked to Wismar to see it. The prophecy not only gives the cause of the war, but also indicates the countries engaged. Up to the present it has been amazingly accurate. It does not exactly state that Germany will be victorious, but indicates how long the war will last, when the decisive battle will be fought, and where and when peace will come, and adds that Germany will continue to exist as a power for many years. A translation of the writing on the parchment is as follows:

"When Malignity and Hatred Rule."

"Lord have mercy on thy people despite the fact that they are turning more and more away from thee; that they are destroying thy monasteries and colisters and forgetting thee. A time will come in Europe when these people will feel the weight of thy hands when malignity and hatred will rule. It will be at a time when the papal seat will be vacant, and the conflagration will come as the result of the murder of a prince. Seven nations will rise against the eagle with one head and the eagle with two heads. The birds will defend themselves furiously and viciously with their talons, and their wings will protect their peoples.

A prince from their very midst, a sovereign who mounts his horse from the wrong side, will be encompassed by a wall of enemies. His slogan will be 'Onward with God!' The Almighty God will lead him from victory and many will meet their death. 'There will be wagons without horses, and fire dragons will fly through the air dropping fire and sulphur and destroying cities and villages. The people will turn to God. The terrible war will last three years and five months. The time will come when food can neither be sold nor bought and bread will be carefully distributed. Thesea will be tinged with blood and men will lie in wait under the waves for their prey."

America's Entry Foretold.

Here follows a reference to America which was in those times often referred to as the "country of the seven stars." "The people of the Seven Stars will attack the ring of steel and suddenly fall upon the bearded nation in the rear and rend it in twain. The whole of the lower Rhine will tremble, but nevertheless will endure to the end. 'The land to the west will be one vast desolation, and the land in the ocean will, with its king be crushed and suffer all the pangs of hunger. The land of the bearded people will still endure for a long time to come, and following the war the world will be united in one great brotherhood. 'The victors will carry a cross, and between four small cities and four steeples of equal height the decisive battle will be fought. Between two linden trees the victor will fall upon his knees before his army, lift his hands to heaven and thank God. Following this all ungodliness will disappear; the indecent dances that prevailed before the war will be seen no more, and God will reign in church, state and family. 'War will commence when the grain is ripening and will reach its height when the cherries bloom the third time. Peace will be consummated by the prince in time for the Christmas mass.' All German newspapers have commented on this amazing prophecy. 'It is remarkable,' says one paper, how accurately this monk has predicted events as they have thus far occurred. We sincerely hope that the longed for peace will come, as he says, in order that we all may breathe freely again.

Slow Sartorial Reconstruction.
The question of civilian equipment has its humorous as well as its serious aspects for the honorably discharged soldier or sailor. Some are lucky enough to return immediately and completely to "civils," while others, less fortunate, must content themselves with a sort of half and half adornment. It no longer causes astonishment to detect a pair of neatly creased trousers hanging stiffly beneath military khaki overcoat, or to see the short blue jacket of the sailor covering an otherwise perfect civilian outfit. These are some of the minor problems of reconstruction.—New York Sun.
